Notice sheet for 6th June 2021 – 12th June 2021

Message from the Vicar

Recently I've been chatting to people about different responses to people or situations which challenge or offend us.

In the Men's Bible and Faith Chat Group (1st and 3rd Tuesdays of the month at 7.30pm) we looked at Cain and Abel and Cain's anger issues.

We also looked at how Jesus dealt with people who were hurtful to him.

We saw that there are different responses - FIGHT - responding with equal or additional aggression. FLIGHT - running from a situation. FREEZE - like a rabbit in the headlights.

Or another way which Jesus frequently used.

He neither ran from those that baited him nor mirrored his aggression.

One occasion he simply took his time, crouched down and drew in the dust as he said the non-provocative but powerful words

"Let the one without sin cast the first stone."

He invited the aggressors to look at themselves, and the situation was diffused because Jesus didn't add extra fuel.

In Sunday's Gospel (Mark 3.20-35) the Scribes were making offensive claims that Jesus cast out demons because he is from the Devil. Jesus didn't enter their game of name calling. He taught with pictures without accusing people of their sins and not adding to the conflict.

I wonder if we can learn how to do the same when we are in tense situations or when we are furious with customer services! Pray about it.

Prayer is very important

Would you like to be part of a prayer chain in our Church?

Let Alan, Sally or Revd. Austin know the best way to contact you, text/whatsapp/email/landline/ other and with your help we will set up a prayer chain.

If you think this is a really good idea would you like to help administer it?

Prayer focus this week

Pray for appropriate sharing of vaccine resources with disadvantaged countries.

Locally pray for St Mary's Old Town (Anglican)
