Notice sheet for 7th August 2022 - 13th August 2022

Thought for the Week

“Are we nearly there yet?”

A question that will be familiar to anyone who has ever travelled with children. No matter how long or short the journey is, that question is sure to come.

In these days of SatNavs it's easy to give the mileage and, thanks to Bluetooth, it's even possible to avoid the holdups and make a rough estimate of your arrival time.

But supposing you were on a journey and you didn't know where you were going. Likewise you would have no idea of when you were going to get there. It would be like booking a Mystery Coach Tour – you have to trust that the person in charge knows where they're going, how to get there, and that where you're going is worth the journey.

In Hebrews 11 we're told about Abraham and Sarah who answered God's call to set out on a journey to a place they didn't know. In fact, they died before they reached the land they'd been promised. Yet they kept on trusting that the God who had called them would keep his promise – if not through them, then through their descendants.

We, too, are on a journey, a journey that will lead us into God's promised kingdom.

We don't know when we'll get there; but we know that if we keep our eyes fixed on God, he will bring us to that place and when we ask “Are we nearly there yet?”, the answer will be a resounding “Yes!”
