Notice sheet for 31st July 2022 - 6th August 2022

Thought for the Week

At this time of year, many of us will be going on holiday and having to pack a suitcase.

Who lays everything out and then realises there is no way it is going to fit in the case?

I am sure we are all guilty of wanting to take too much stuff away with us.

This week's reading is the parable of the rich fool.

A man works hard and plans to store his grain for years to come.

But Jesus says "Watch out! Be on your guard against all kinds of greed; life does not consist in an abundance of possessions."

In other words, "Don't be greedy!"

Jesus tells us that storing up more than we need is wasteful.

God has promised to supply all of our needs, but He has not promised to fulfil our selfish wishes.

Carrying around too much stuff; be it clothes for holidays, not so long ago it was toilet rolls, for some it is worries, is not good for us.

This week let us count our blessings and be content with what God has given us so generously.

Be on guard and do not be selfish or greedy, and if we have more than we need, let's find a way of sharing.

Prayer focus this week
