Notice sheet for 6th July 2025-12th July 2025

The Rev's Ramblings

How often do you feel "what's the point?"?
Do you feel 'I can't make any difference to the stupidity of world leaders who insist on war.' 'I can't stop global warming.' 'I can't change my health, it's as much as I can do to stay on top of the washing up!'

It's so easy to forget that a marathon is only made up of one step at a time.
Maybe seeing all the steps together is too much for us to accept and we are likely not even to try.
A single step may also seem too easy to be worth the effort. We must learn to value the small victories.
They can add up.
Bigger and better habits can be grown from something that takes no more than 2 minutes daily.
Keep a record and see how a good thing grows.

Naaman, Commander of the Aramean army was immensely important, but embarrassingly had leprosy. Of all people, a foreign serving girl advised about Elisha the Prophet who would help Naaman.
It was insult enough to his pride that a foreign slave girl gave advice, but after travelling to see the prophet, Elisha didn't even come out of his house but told Naaman to dip in the River Jordan 7 times.
Naaman was so insulted at the simplicity of the treatment that he nearly didn't do it, but in that 'insignificant' action, significant wholeness came in healing.

What little action will you make today that with God's help could grow?

Prayer focus this week

Pray for everyone who has been affected by extreme weather conditions, especially the current heatwave across Europe.
