Notice sheet for 14th June-20th June 2026

The Rev's Ramblings

When churches are looking for a new vicar (don't worry, I'm not going anywhere!) they often write a job description that sounds almost impossible. They want someone brilliant with babies, toddlers, juniors, teenagers, adults and the elderly; someone experienced in management, gifted in creativity, inspiring in worship, faithful to tradition, strong on Biblical teaching, but only the parts everyone agrees with, and modern enough to connect with today's culture too. In other words, they seem to be looking for Jesus himself... and honestly, I'm not even sure Jesus would take the job!

The truth is, Jesus never intended for one person to do everything alone. Of course, being God, he could have done everything himself, but instead he chose to involve others. He taught his disciples, trusted them, and sent them out to share in the work of God's kingdom. In Matthew 9:37-38 Jesus says, "The harvest is plentiful but the labourers are few. Ask the Lord of the harvest to send out labourers into his harvest field."

That challenge still speaks to us today. Church was never meant to depend entirely on one vicar while everyone else watches from the sidelines. Every one of us has a part to play. Maybe, if you're reading this, there's a "harvesting kit" with your name on it. We use it by serving, encouraging, giving financially, and most importantly by living lives that make others curious about the hope and treasure we've discovered in God's family.
